

Career Profiles:

Truck Driver

A Truck Driver is the point of contact for receiving, transporting, and delivering products within the ag industry. They ensure that products such as feed, grain, fertilizer, and other commodities and equipment are delivered to their desired locations safely and efficiently.

What Responsibilities Will I Have?

- Observe all government and company regulations at all times
- Ensure that equipment is cleaned and maintained in a safe working manner. This includes identifying all needed maintenance requiring attention by maintenance team.
- Accurately perform a pre-trip inspection that includes tires, fuel, oil, etc...
- Before loading ensure that the compartments are free of feed or ingredients.
- Collect samples of ingredients for quality assurance testing.
- Accurately complete delivery forms and forward the documentation for timely processing.
- Load and Unload truck when at destination.
- Maintain a clean driving record.
- Develop strong written and oral communication skills. Respecting customer and supplier relations.

"Working with you"

Progressive Ag Center, LLC

What Education & Training is Needed?

High School Diploma plus CDL Certification

What High School Courses Are Recommended...

Agricultural Education Courses, Science, Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Business

Typical Employers

Employed by cooperative, grain merchandising companies, chemical companies, seed production companies, food production companies

Other Titles

Equipment Operator, Mechanic, Equipment Maintenance Operator, Field Operator, Facility Operator